Trading of Indian Saras

2419. SHRI NANA DESHMUKH: Will the Minister of ENVIORNMENT AND FORESTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that trading of Indian Saras, the State bird of Uttar Pradesh, is prohibited under the Wildlife Protection Act;

(b) whether it is also a fact that there are only 8000 Saras all over the world, of which 6000 are in Uttar Pradesh, but these are much on sale in the market of Lucknow; and

(c) if so, what steps are being taken by Government to rescue the bird, for conservation?

THE MINISTER OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI T. R. BAALU): (a) Yes, sir.

(b) and (c) As per the survey report of Wildlife Institute of India, the estimated total population of Saras in the world is 8000-10,000, out of which about 4000-5000 birds are in Uttar Pradesh . There have been media reports regarding sale of Saras in the market of Lucknow but these have not been confirmed on investigation. However, to prevent any sale of Saras cranes constant vigil is kept by the field staff.

Sophisticated Weapons for Forest Officials
